Computer Programs for Animal Breeders

The Register Program Standard Edition

Separate programs for rabbits, cavies, chinchillas, pigeons, poultry, caged birds, rats/mice, hamsters, ferrets, foxes, or sugar gliders. Displays & prints pedigrees. Several styles of pedigree printouts, selectable by the user. Prints inventories, cage cards, business cards and address labels. Keeps data on winnings, litters, buyers, sellers and finances. Easy data entry & lots of on-screen help. Free telephone and email technical support. You must have Windows XP, Vista or 7.
Cost for the software is US$69.00

The Rabbit Register Deluxe Edition

In addition to all of the features included in the Standard Edition, the Deluxe Edition supplies the tools necessary to analyze and predict the genetic makeup of your animals, and to keep track of all of your breeding chores. As chores are completed, the program automatically updates your litter data. The program comes complete with a text on genetics entitled "Color Genetics in U.S. Domestic Rabbits". The Deluxe Edition also includes features that allow judges to track their show bids and expenses. Cost is US$89.00
